Dear Mr. Drai:

Thank you for your invitation to Mr. Casey to visit the set of "The Man With One Red Shoe."

I am responding for Mr. Casey because he is currently away from Washington, and I note that you are here only until 31 August. I am afraid his schedule of official travel and other commitments will prevent him from accepting your kind offer.

If he were here, I am sure Mr. Casey would join me in wishing you success in your venture. Thank you again for thinking of CIA.

Sincerely,

Acting Director, Public Affairs

Mr. William Casey

Dear Mr. Casey:

We are making a film in Washington, "The Man With One Red Shoe," which is a comedy with a C.I.A. background. It is, for the most part, broad farce which no one will confuse with the reality of actual Agency organization or operations; a script is attached, and I think you might find it funny.

We would like to have you visit the set if your time permits and meet your movie counterpart Charles Durning, if he is in town at that time, Dabney Coleman as one of the agents, and the two romantic leads, Tom Hanks and Lori Singer.

Our production office is at the Washington Marriott, telephone 833-3950, and we will be in town until August 31. I'm sure the cast and crew would be as pleased as I if you could stop by one of our Washington locations. Please let me know if you can, and what time would be convenient for you.

Sincerely,
